At Mystica, we understand the struggles and challenges being faced by entrepreneurs and sales professionals in the lubricant industry. That's why we are here to provide specialized Online Training & Coaching Services for Technical Sales of Lubricants, Greases & Metal Working Fluids.

Our mission is to empower Lubricant Sales Force, Lubricant Entrepreneurs, Oil Professionals, and Tribology Graduates to overcome their obstacles, increase sales, maximize profitability, and create a vertical shift in their careers amidst severe competition. With clients spanning India, Middle East, South East & Africa, we are trusted partners in your growth & success.

Join our Lube Leadership Program which is designed to transform your entire approach into a solution-oriented mindset, creating an impactful personality, boosting your confidence & initiating you into a value-based selling skill set using scientifically proven REPA sales techniques. We believe Selling is a rather disciplined way of life.

In today's competitive market, technical expertise is non-negotiable, hence we inculcate

1. Fundamentals of Tribology Science,
2. Knowledge of Additives,
3. Automotive & Industrial Fluids,
4. Testing Methodologies & Guideline formulations

Building human competence and motivated workforce through training is the greatest strength for any organisation. We completely overhaul Lube Professionals using proven practical tools of transformation derived from 22 years of rich industry experience.

Master your Sales Game with our ✨ TriBA = MBA in Tribology Science ✨ with Mystica!

I truly believe that our “Lube Leadership Program” could be a game-changer in achieving your business goals and career advancement.

Please suggest a convenient time to discuss and explore the possibility of working together. Anticipating your positive reply soon.

Thanks & Regards,

Soniya Keswani,
